Report of School Board.

Fellow Citizens:

The annual report of your school officers is again called for, and as we look back and review the record of the year just past, we feel sure that it will compare favorably with that of former years. Perfection has not yet been reached, in the management of our common schools, and we fear the day is far distant when we shall arrive at this position, yet we know that we are year by year making some progress in the right direction.

Parents are becoming more and more interested in the proper education of their children, and that town or city which best supports its schools, and furnishes to its scholars the largest number of school weeks in the year, is the place where watchful parents seek to rear their homes and invest their capital, that their children may enjoy all the advantages and receive the best possible education at an early age. Thus our country towns are becoming more and more depopulated, and our rural districts, where forty or fifty years ago every farm was occupied and the district contained scholars enough for a large school, to-day, in many instances, is almost entirely vacated. The majority having, "for the sake of the children," removed to a more favorable locality. So under these existing circumstances it seems wise for every town that wishes to retain its population and its wealth to be as liberal and public spirited as possible in the maintenance of its schools.

During the past year we have been able to furnish, on an average, 23 weeks schooling to five schools, all of which contained eighty-four pupils. We have been fortunate in securing good teachers, in every instance, and parents, teachers and scholars have worked unitedly together for the best results.

The insurance on school buildings and other property expires

May 6th, and at the annual meeting the town will need to make an appropriation to renew the same. Also two or three of our school buildings need painting, and the town will be asked to instruct the School Board as to what action to take in regard to the school fund in District No. 4.

A statistical report of the several schools, the roll of honor, and treasurer's report will follow these remarks.

SPECIAL REPORT BY SCHOOLS.

SCHOOL No 1. (Center.)

Both spring and fall terms were taught by Miss M. Elizabeth Holt of Newbury, N. H. Miss Holt had previously taught several terms in this town, and had proven herself a very desirable teacher. She began good work at once; secured the love and friendship of her pupils, and the exercises at the close of the fall term showed that the school under her instruction had improved very much indeed.

SCHOOL No. 2. (East Washington.)

The school for the year was taught by Miss B. Anna Kempton, of West Springfield. Miss Kempton is a faithful teacher, and a profitable school was the result of her labors.

SCHOOL No. 3. (Ball's Corner.)

Both terms taught by Miss Jennie A. Hurd of Washington; a teacher particularly adapted for the advancement of her school. The mental drill was especially fine, and we would commend the practice in all schools.

SCHOOL No. 4. (Butterfields.)

Spring term taught by Mrs. Addie F. Butterfield. Fall term by Miss Evis E. Farnsworth, both of Washington. Each gave good satisfaction and their efforts were amply rewarded by the progress made by the pupils. The desks and ceiling in this school-room have been painted, for the first time in its history, and the walls are soon to be papered gratuitously, by a lady of the district.

SCHOOL No. 5. (Turnpike)

Both terms taught by Miss Angie E. Friend of Marlow. This was Miss Friend's first experience. We were much pleased with the orderly manner of her school, and the examination proved that good work had been accomplished.
